

Pendleton, IN - Congressman Mike Pence joined other local school officials in dedicating the brand new Pendleton Heights Middle School Building:

U.S. Rep. Mike Pence, R-6th District, took his opportunity as guest speaker to playfully encourage students.

"I have three teenagers at home, so I know how much trouble you people are," he said to a ripple of laughter.

"Whatever dream beats in your heart," he said, "There's nobody standing in between you and your dream, except you."

"This community has given you our best," Pence said. "We'd like you to return the favor. Give us your best in the days and weeks and years to come."
